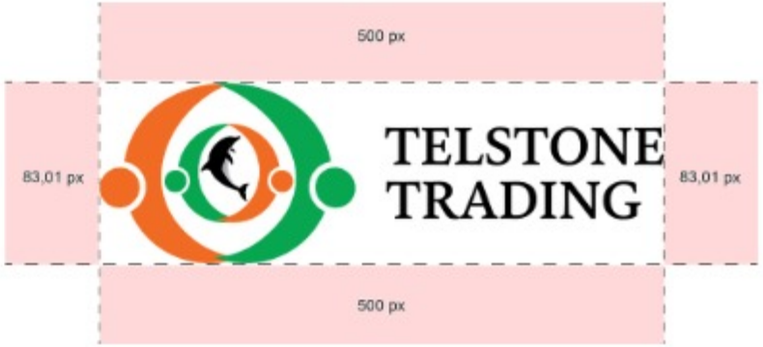
04. Clear Space

Ensuring our logo maintains its visual impact and clarity is paramount. To achieve this, a designated clear space must always encompass the logo, safeguarding it from visual clutter and maintaining its integrity. This clear space serves as a protective boundary, allowing our logo to breathe and command attention amidst surrounding elements. It reinforces the logo's prominence, ensuring it remains the focal point of any design or communication. By adhering to this guideline, we uphold the professionalism and consistency of our brand identity, enhancing recognition and reinforcing our commitment to quality.



05. Do Not

The success of the brand depends on our logo maintaining a consistent appearance in all communications.

In order to preserve the integrity of the logo, the following examples illustrate how it should NOT be used.

Do not change the color of the logo or elements of the logo.

Do not put the logo in a container or shape.

Do not change or alter the logotype.

Do not add effects to the logo.

Do not rotate the logo.

Do not skew or alter proportions of the logo.
